

Assembly and Installation

Cable Cover Installation

1. Place two tabs on underside of Cisco back cover (included with display) into two holes on bracket on back of column assembly. This bracket is located just above the cart handle.
2. Install the back cover of the MX200 onto the back of the display by pushing it into position until it snaps into place.

